Current Experience

Attorney Jim Brady and Associates, P.C. established in October 2010, is engaged in the general practice of law with an emphasis in disability/personal injury law and litigation. We also represent individuals and lenders in real estate and business transactions.

I have litigated numerous cases in the areas of workers compensation and Social Security disability law before administrative agencies and have also tried numerous civil and criminal cases in the District and Superior Courts of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. I have lectured on disability law in Merrimack, NH, Boston, MA, Providence, RI, New York, NY, Chicago, IL and Pasadena, CA for the National Center for Advanced Medical Education, Compass Medical Network, Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) and for SEAK, Inc. at its National Workers Compensation Seminar. I am the author of "Disability and the Latex Allergic Health Care Worker" © J.M.Brady, 1996; a contributing author of "Multiple Chemical Sensitivity Cases and Daubert" © MCLE, 1998; Workers Compensation Practice in Massachusetts, ©MCLE, 2001; and the "14th Annual Workers' Compensation Law Conference 2013 ©MCLE, 2013. I co-hosted "The Boston Bar" with Attorney Paul F. Kenney, an internet radio show that was heard on www.legaltalknetwork.com.
